Purpose

1. To provide opportunities to enhance the quality of all students' educational experiences.
2. To provide unique travel and field trip opportunities for students through local and extended travel and off-campus experiences.
3. To ensure safety of students, minimize liability for the Charter Board and enrich students' travel experience through careful planning.

Philosophy

1. Field trip requests (both day trips and extended travel) shall support the school's educational and behavioral objectives.
2. Field trip requests shall be approved only when the Principal/Board agrees that the trip's educational and instructional value outweighs lost instruction time and potential liability.
3. Field trips shall have clear educational or behavioral objectives and be tied to Ogden Preparatory Academy's mission statement.
4. Ogden Preparatory Academy's general philosophy is that insured commercial transportation is the preferred choice for extended student travel.

Definitions

1. Board: the Board of Directors of Ogden Preparatory Academy.
2. School: Ogden Preparatory Academy.
3. Field trip: an instructional field trip, approved by the Principal or the Board, to visit a location or several sites off the school campus under the supervision of designated school chaperones designed to enrich and extend the classroom instructional program. Field trips should link the school and the community and help students to relate classroom ideas and theories to practical applications.
4. Types of field trips:
 - a. Single-day field trip: A field trip where students travel with school-designated chaperones from the school to the trip location and back to school within a 24-hour period.

 - c. International multi-day field trip: A field trip where students travel with school-designated chaperones to a location outside the USA for multiple days and return to the school. Travel may be by pre-determined vehicles or combinations.
5. Chaperone: An adult (preferably over 21) who is designated by the school to supervise students and enrich students' educational experience. All chaperones must have completed a criminal background check consistent with Utah law and have had any offenses reviewed by the school consistent with all school employees and

6. Parent: Parent or legal guardian of a student.

6. It is a violation of Utah law (Utah Code §53E-3-512 and R277-515 Educator Standards) for school employees to recruit students for school travel from which employees will benefit. School employees may notify students and parents of travel opportunities, but they may not solicit participation by students or parents or reward students for participation.
7. Teachers, administrators, and school employees shall not sleep or stay in rooms with students. Any exceptions for compelling or unexpected circumstances shall be made by the Administrator accompanying the group.
8. At least one adult on a field trip should be first aid trained. The school will provide a fully stocked first aid kit for each field trip.

3. Both students and parents (in the permission/disclosure form) shall be clearly informed that parents will be required to come personally to take their students home from field trips for serious student misconduct. “Serious student misconduct” will be established by school policy and includes use of alcohol, drugs or tobacco, possession of weapons, violations of law, bullying or harassment or any conduct that puts another person in danger or qualifies as a Safe School Violation per the Safe School Policy.
4. Students with special needs will be accommodated on all field trips, as required by federal law. Prior to any field trip, teachers, parents and specialists, as necessary, shall confer in advance to determine what accommodations are necessary for all children to have a safe and instructional experience on a field trip. The school should accommodate a parent that requests to accompany a child with involved medical needs so that the child's educational experience is comparable to that of other students.

5. Students shall not take materials from field trip sites without teacher, supervisor or site-supervisor permission. They must obey all laws, including littering and noise ordinances, and shall not take artifacts from outdoor sites.
6. Students shall comply with all dress codes and safety directions, as directed by teachers or trip supervisors.

The information shall be maintained confidentially by the school employee.

Parent release and information
